Citrosol AK Paltas UE has been developed specifically to extend the shelf life of avocados. This coating mitigates the internal blackening of the internal flesh that typically results from transportation or chilling injury during refrigeration.

Furthermore, Citrosol AK Paltas UE reduces the loss of any weight by maintaining the firmness of the avocado without interfering in the natural color changes during ripening.